

Calgary Learns 2020-21 Program Grant Call for Applications

Program Grant applications are due January 15, 2020.

If your program is not currently funded by Calgary Learns, we want to connect with you prior to sending you the relevant application package. Please contact the Grant Coordinator (grants@calgarylearns.com) to arrange a phone conversation.

About CALP Program Grants

Calgary Learns is the Community Adult Learning Program (CALP) granting council for Calgary. The Ministry of Advanced Education funds CALP, which supports over 100 community-based learning organizations in Alberta that provide adult literacy and foundational learning opportunities to financially and socially barriered adult learners.

Calgary Learns administers Program Grants to local, part-time programs who focus on delivering foundational literacy and learning content designed to meet the learning needs of adult learners at the foundational level. The granting term is from July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2021.

If you are applying for a foundational program designed to serve Indigenous learners, please refer to the Indigenous Program Grant Call for Applications, available at www.calgarylearns.com.

Eligible CALP Areas and Categories

Applications are accepted in the following funding areas and categories as defined and prioritized by the Alberta Ministry of Advanced Education.

If applying for programs which have the same primary objectives in the same funding category, a single application may be used. Separate applications are required for each individual category.

Highest Priority Funding Area		LITERACY AND FOUNDATIONAL LEARNING (LFL) LFL programs focus on foundational skill development of financially and socially barriered adult learners (18+).
CATEGORIES	Adult Literacy	Reading, writing and document use for learners with English as their first language (can speak and understand English). The ability to identify, understand, interpret, create, communicate and use printed and written materials associated with varying contexts for learners up to and including pre-GED (General Educational Development).
	English Language Learning	The study and practice of basic English language by individuals whose first language is other than English and who are unable to communicate fluently or learn effectively in English. Programs help adult learners gain proficiency in speaking, reading, writing and listening in English for learners up to and including CLB 4 (Canadian Language Benchmark).
	Numeracy	The ability to use, apply, interpret, and communicate mathematical information and ideas for learners up to and including pre-GED.
	Basic Digital Skills	The ability to appropriately use and understand basic digital systems, tools and applications, and to process digital information. This category does not include learners who have intermediate or advanced digital skills.
	Foundational Life Skills	Learning opportunities that facilitate the development of the fundamental competencies that adults require to be able to participate in foundational learning and/or everyday life on an independent basis. Programming in this category includes one or more of the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• oral communication skills</li> <li>• personal and interpersonal skills</li> <li>• decision-making and problem-solving</li> <li>• creative thinking and critical thinking</li> <li>• self-awareness and self-assessment</li> </ul>
Secondary Priority Funding Area		COMMUNITY CAPACITY BUILDING (CCB) CCB programs complement, build upon, or supplement the literacy and foundational skills that financially barriered adult learners (18+) are trying to achieve. CCB programs are more focused on content than foundational skill development. CALP examples include programs that may focus on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Employment readiness</li> <li>• GED preparation</li> <li>• Indigenous languages/cultures</li> <li>• Parenting</li> </ul>

Eligible Program Delivery Methods

Program Delivery Methods are the ways in which Literacy and Foundational Learning (LFL) and Community Capacity Building (CCB) programs are delivered to meet the adult learner goals. Accepted program delivery methods include:

Courses
A series of instructor-led classes delivered to the same group of learners with the same learning objectives
Tutoring
Ongoing one-on-one or small group with individualized learning plans delivered by a volunteer or paid tutor
Family Literacy Courses
A series of instructor-led classes delivered to the same group of learners with the same learning objectives utilizing Family Literacy philosophy and best practices to achieve adult literacy and foundational learning outcomes
Learning Activities
Lowest priority; drop-in or one-off learning opportunities, includes drop-in tutoring (no ongoing relationship with learners)

Next Steps in the Granting Process

January 15, 2020	Deadline for applications.
January to March 2020	Calgary Learns staff screen applications for eligibility. A team of external reviewers assess applications. These teams are comprised of field experts. A slate of recommendations is prepared for the Calgary Learns Board of Directors for approval. Calgary Learns then applies to the Ministry of Advanced Education for the CALP Grant based on the approved slate.
Late Spring 2020	After the Ministry of Advanced Education approves the CALP Grant, unsuccessful applicants receive a declination letter, and successful applicants are notified of their full or partial funding allocation.
Summer 2020	Upon meeting all applicant requirements and responsibilities, and with Calgary Learns' receipt of the CALP Grant, programs receive their first funding installment (40% of total allocation).
Fall 2020	Calgary Learns staff visit programs and check-in with Program Coordinators.
December 2020	Programs receive their second funding installment (40% of total allocation).
July 31, 2021	Final Reports are due July 31, 2021 .
Early September 2021	Upon approval of the Final Report, programs receive their final funding installment (20% of total allocation).
